Response to Order

THE defendants maintain that Crenshaw has not filed any inmate grievance challenging the actions about which he complains. Enclosed, you will find a copy of the Inmate Grievance and a Sworn AFFIDAVIT from the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff denies the allegations of the defendants. The Defendants was aware of the problem. The defendants is the ones that told me how to obtain A 1983 Form. The Plaintiff Ask the court to allow the proceedings to continue. The plaintiff ask that this be added to the other response.

AFFIDAVIT

I James E. Crenshaw swear under oath that the foregoing statements is true and correct. AS you will see enclosed is a Grievance Form with the date of 8-14-07. The plaintiff did try to relieve this matter through the proper procedure. Crenshaw obtain a Grievance Form, from one of the Jailers of Coosa County Jail. AFTER filling out the Grievance Form was filled out, Crenshaw placed the Form in the door, with the other mail. That is the common place inmates place mail and other paperwork. Crenshaw never received a response from the Grievance Form. Then Crenshaw asked Lt. Stover for a 1983 Form. LT. STOVER stated, "The Sheriff says you have to mail for one. Then Crenshaw proceeded with the 1983 Form.

Mr. Stover, I'm requesting for a 1983 form, so I can file a law suit against Wal-mart, and Judge Rochester and the Sheriff Terry Wilson, and you to Lt. Stover.
1. Wal-mart for jumping on me
2. Judge Rochester for violating my rights
3. Lt. Stover for not doing his job right, opening my legal mail with out my been presence.
4. Sheriff Terry Wilson - falsely accused me of stealing
And, plus I was a trustee at the time.
Thank you
